Go Camping

A The Snowdon Site

Nestling at the foot of the highest mountain in Wales is one of the most picturesque sites in the world. You can pitch a tent or bring your caravan as this site caters for both. The charges for staying here are very reasonable. There is also a shop which sells just about everything you might need and a good restaurant on site, but be warned – the prices are very high, so make sure you take essential items with you. The site offers pony treks in the mountains on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

For an extra charge, you have the opportunity to go on a day excursion and see the spectacular scenery of North Wales. All modern amenities are available, the cost of which is included in the ground charge. The Snowdon campsite is open from April to September and is very popular so you'll definitely need to make a reservation if you want to stay there.

B The Shimmering Sands Site

The Shimmering Sands camping site is situated literally two minutes' walk from the golden beach of Paignton on England's south coast. It's a traditional family campsite and an ideal place to take the children, but it often attracts young people as well. Spend the whole day at the beach (provided the British weather doesn't let you down), or at the amusement arcade which is open until midnight. Pubs, clubs and discos take care of the evenings, so there's always something to do. Camping facilities include a well-supervised play area for young children, electricity and a modern shower block. This site is for tents only. Shimmering Sands is open all year round but you must make reservations for July and August.

C The Windermere Site

Set in the middle of the Lake District, the Windermere campsite is the ideal place to relax and enjoy the peace and quiet that the area is famous for. The site has strict rules about noise levels. The scenery makes it the perfect place to go for long walks. The site is not, however, the place for people who need lots of facilities. The amenities of Windermere campsite are very basic, which probably explains why this site is fairly inexpensive. Tents and caravans are both welcome. The site is closed from October to March. Reservations aren't necessary.

D Kiddies Camping Ground

This novel campsite is perfect for both children and their parents. The kids have a great time while their parents stay at home and have a break. Kiddies Camping Ground is situated near the New Forest, and the variety of activities for the youngsters is hard to beat. Games, sports of all kinds, walks in the forest and pony rides are just some of the activities laid on. The children are all carefully supervised by experienced adults. Tents, bedding, and meals are all provided and are included in the charge, which is quite high, but for a week or two of peace at home it's worth it! Kiddies Camping Ground is only open from June to August.

E The Sanctuary Camp

This is a camping ground with a difference. It's called the Sanctuary, because that's exactly what it is; a sanctuary for sick or injured animals. The founders of the sanctuary came up with idea when they started to get so many animals that they needed extra help and money to feed and house them all. The Sanctuary consists of the house and farmyard and three large fields. The owners have built some amenities in the largest field and opened it as a campsite. The other two fields are reserved for the animals. If you like animals and don't mind hard work, then this is the holiday for you. Days are spent helping cats, dogs, horses, donkeys, cows, pigs –in fact, just about every animal you can think of – recover from their illnesses or injuries. The money charged for the holiday goes towards the sanctuary fund. The site is open all year round, but reservations must be made. And by the way, no pets are allowed!
